Dear Ms. Hesse:

I believe the settlement between the Justice Department and Microsoft is fair. As I understand between $25 and 35 million dollars of taxpayer money has already been spent on this anti-trust case. Please keep the taxpayer in mind, I really feel the last thing we need is more litigation and regulation of high-tech business's during this time of challenges of economy and our nation at war.

Microsoft's innovations has lead to great benefits for the customer. You must agree we have better products at lower prices.

Sincerely,
